

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

leftover	senior	fiercely	considerate	hurriedly
misbehaviour	informed	settled...down	scribbling
	battle	detention

1. Born in an era when the whites had more rights than the blacks, his father, who was an African American, had to _____ against prejudice for a marriage with a white lady.
2. ‘The longer someone knows you, the less _____ he or she will become. Nine out of ten strangers are kind, but a close friend is always rude,’ an inconsiderate friend said to me.
3. Some students were sent to _____ for having failed to submit their assignments for 3 consecutive days in a week.
4. Human rights activists have long been arguing _____ against the legality of capital punishment in those countries where it is still lawful.
5. As soon as the clock had struck three-thirty, Chris and his fellow students _____ left the classroom to catch the bus scheduled at 4—to the dissatisfaction of the class teacher.
6. The reply email reads ‘Applicants to this position will be _____ of our decision in three months’.
7. The homeless people in Sham Shui Po used to live on _____ foods that had been generously given away from and to nonprofit organisations such as the Church.
8. The way in which a parent copes with a child’s _____, such as disobedience, can vary greatly from culture to culture.
9. While my classmates are taking notes of what was written on the blackboard, word by word, in perfect handwriting, I am only _____ on my notebook some key reminders to note.
10. In Japanese youth culture, _____ members of secondary schools are treated with more respect, as if the difference of a year or two would make those 18-year-olds wiser or more respectable than their younger schoolmates.
11. From 2015 to 2019, hundreds and thousands of war refugees had escaped from their homeland in the Middle East, Africa, etc. and _____ themselves _____ in the European countries for a new life.