

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

indigestion	morphoses	substances	hostess gifts	inverted
Pollination	taken aback	constipation	passageway
cluster	ailments	poignant	antioxidant

1. People who work long hours in front of computers are likely to be troubled by blurry vision and sore eyes. These minor _____, if not taken seriously, might result in more serious conditions like retinal tears.
2. Lemon water is rich in Vitamin C, an _____ that helps boost one's immune system and fight against the cold bugs during the cold season.
3. Ever since the manufacturing industry in Hong Kong started going downhill, Wong Chuk Hang, once an industrial district with a cluster of factories, has been gradually redeveloped into a _____ of office buildings and hotels.
4. Christopher, a long-time patient of _____, found a cure at last after visiting a doctor who advised him to take high doses of probiotics every day.
5. I'm glad that I have known many foodie friends, who always bring me good food and good wine as _____ whenever they come over to my place for parties.
6. Gastritis, a disease that causes _____ and pain in the stomach, is common among white-collar workers, who usually cannot have their meals regularly because of heavy workload.
7. How ironic it is to see politicians, who are trained to be critical thinkers, attach themselves blindly to opinions that support their stance, but refuse to take the _____ opinions of their opponents seriously!
8. After receiving consecutive weeks of intensive training on etiquette and public speaking, most contestants of this beauty pageant have shown drastic changes in their behavior and appearance, as if they have undergone ' _____ ' like the ugly duckling which turns into an elegant swan.
9. Along the long underground _____ which connects different concourses of Causeway Bay station hung countless alluring advertisements.
10. American poet Sylvia Plath, influenced by her _____ break-up with her husband and anxiety, wrote dark and hard-to-read poems in the last few months of her life, as if she wanted to let the readers feel her pain.
11. _____ is a process that leads to reproduction in the plant, in which animals such as bees and butterflies help carry pollens from one flower to another, so that it can make its seeds and produce its offspring.
12. A plastic container without a microwave-save label, if heated in the microwave, may release toxic chemical _____ that put one's life at risk.
13. Her friends were _____ by the changes in her looks: an upturn nose, bigger eyes, fuller lips, all of which appeared after she got obsessed with artificial beauty and received plastic surgery in South Korea.