

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

| | | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------|--------------------|-------------------|
| considerably | greenhouse gas | consumption | generation |
| farewell | disposable | soared | emission |
| appliances | inhabitants | atmosphere | |

1. Since 2018, the Environmental Protection Department has come up with the statutory free removal service, in which the sellers arrange to collect certain used _____ for their customers and send them to licensed recyclers for recycling.
2. The Northern Lights occur when electronic particles of the sun clash with the earth's _____, creating a fascinating scenery that attracts tourists to visit.
3. The way young adults see the world might be _____ different than the ways their parents do, hence the occasional miscommunication.
4. Families in Australia tend to limit their water _____ due to water shortage caused by the drought.
5. Although daily contact lenses are _____, they are more comfortable and more convenient to use, compared with monthly contact lenses.
6. The Chernobyl disaster of 1986, the worst nuclear accident in recent history, caused an explosive _____ of radiation that ended with countless deaths by cancer.
7. After Joey's departure was announced, a _____ party was held so that her friends could gather together and wished her a great future ahead.
8. Though thought to be dangerous, nuclear power at least has the advantage of producing the least amount of carbon dioxide (after water power) among all methods of electricity _____.
9. It is in our best interests that we live in ways that would produce the least amount of carbon, since carbon dioxide is the most abundant _____.
10. By the time Christopher Columbus discovered the Americas, they were distanced lands where the native _____ resided.
11. After its jet engine was started, the rocket was lifted up by the force created by the fuel, and in the blink of an eye, it _____ into the azure sky.