

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

ubiquity	imposing	buoyant	stature	hybrid	radiant
emblem	ornamental	concrete	barren	nectar
	amidst	coincidentally

1. Thanks to the moon that was faintly shining _____ the clouds, we got this photo of the glittering waves, which are neither too bright nor too dim.
2. After a complete renewal was carried out by the property developer, what used to be a _____ land has now been turned to a town inhabited by thousands of people.
3. The Dead Sea is unique for its high concentration of salt in water, which makes the human body more _____ than usual.
4. Many years later, they _____ ran into each other at the café where they first met and fell in love, and as their eyes met, they immediately recalled those unforgettable times they had spent with each other.
5. In view of the continuous turmoil in society, parties concerned have covered the windows in MTR stations and shopping malls with reinforced _____ to minimize property damage.
6. Some say that the Queen, as the _____ of the royal family in the United Kingdom, has more authority than the prime minister, as he, the leader of the government, always needs to take her advice into account.
7. Guardians of the Galaxy, a superhero film, is a _____ of two genres as it combines elements of sci-fi and fantasy in its setting and character development.
8. The statue of Bruce Lee stands with an _____ expression on the Avenue of Stars, as if ready for a kung fu battle.
9. Honeycombs are where the bees store the _____ collected from flowers and turn it into honey, before it is extracted by farmers.
10. To engage the audience's attention during intense debates, debaters would often ask and exclaim rhetorical questions and phrases that are more _____ than meaningful.
11. Receiving the news that he would be a student of English Literature at his dream university, Brian, whose face was lit up with a _____ smile, screamed at the top of his lungs, 'Yes, I did it!'
12. He, as a professional basketball player, is known for not only his huge _____, but also his amazing shooting accuracy.
13. The _____ of local pharmacies has long been criticised by the local residents in the district, who have been protesting against the problem of parallel traders.