

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

noteworthy	diagnosis	in...debt	spoils
insights	grasp	timely	bottomless

1. What causes gamblers to be vulnerable to betting is their _____ desire to make easy money or to win back what has been lost on the gambling table.
2. The _____ of certain medical conditions, like sleep apnoea, is fairly tricky since their early symptoms are rather similar to those of some much commoner illnesses.
3. With Professor Wong's graphic illustration and concise explanation, these mathematical theories have become much easier to _____.
4. He's always regretted not having listened to his parents' advice to get rid of his toxic friends, who lured him into football betting, a bad habit that left him _____ heavy _____.
5. Alan recommended me a self-help book titled 'How Not to Dwell on the Past', a book written by a practised psychologist, from which I have gained invaluable _____ into self-love and self-care.
6. The fact that more than 230 students have been sent to the hospital after lunch, very probably due to food poisoning, should be _____ to the school's authorities.
7. Soon after the negotiation for an equal share of the _____—boar meat—collapsed, the two tribes started a brutal fight, which eventually developed into a bloodbath.
8. I believe all experienced doctors would agree that _____ medication and treatment is crucial to every stroke victim. When a stroke hits, close to 2 million brain cells die per minute. That is why every minute matters.