

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

metabolism	screening	officiate	rectify
eligible	reimburse	pentathlon

1. A human resources manager is responsible not only for recruiting _____ employees for the company, but also for managing human resources policies and practices, such as staff training.
2. It is generally acknowledged that people with slow _____ are easier to gain weight. Therefore, they need to step up their workout if they intend to lose weight.
3. In Christianity, marriage symbolises the holy union of a man and a woman out of the love and commitment they share with each other, which is why a pastor, as a servant of God, is often summoned to _____ at weddings.
4. The word '_____', referring to a contest comprising five different sport events, is derived from the Greek words 'pente' (five) and 'athlon' (contest).
5. LASIK eye surgery, in which an excimer laser is applied to _____ refractive errors in the eyes by reshaping the cornea, is usually recommended by opticians to severely nearsighted individuals.
6. Under the Employees' Compensation Ordinance, companies are obliged to _____ their employees' medical expenses if they happen to sustain injuries on the job.
7. 'I once believed that love could trump hardships of every kind. But what I have been through taught me that this belief was nothing but a naive fantasy, for even love could be shattered after a financial _____. It turned out that I was not wealthy enough, at least not for my exes,' said a member in a break-up support group.