

Complete the exercise below with the words from the word box.

prosthetics	utilised	prospect	torturous
expertise	tangible	redefined	versatility
advent	open the door to	execute

1. The _____ of online communication tools such as email and instant messaging apps in the late 20th and early 21st centuries has made letter-writing old-fashioned, if not outmoded.
2. The secret agent was commanded to _____, at all costs, the plan detailed in this sealed envelope given to him by his seniors the night before the mission.
3. The newly established hospital is recruiting three cardiologists with _____ in managing ACHD (adult congenital heart disease) patients.
4. Some scientists have predicted that our progress in space exploration so far will one day _____ space settlement, that is, to human beings' permanent residence on another planet.
5. The _____ of the hurricane leaving the already water-logged region is not bright, according to the weather forecast.
6. Although _____ are by no means perfect substitutes for human limbs, they at least enable people with accessibility needs to take care of themselves to some degree.
7. What 'good design' means for technological items has been _____ over the years by Steve Jobs and his colleagues in Apple. Now, for example, it is simplicity and elegance, rather than variety of colours and shapes, that are the defining characteristics of a fancy cellphone.
8. Despite the greater cost involved, some music buffs still prefer vinyl records to digital music, seeing them as a kind of _____ proof of their personal relationship to each of the music artists they love.
9. The most _____ thing imaginable to a workaholic like Pete is to stay at home at weekends with his brother, who would watch films and take occasional naps, and then be reminded of his own unproductivity.
10. Rubbish that would have been thrown away, like cardboards and popsicle sticks, are often _____ in DIY classes to make useful things such as containers and pet houses.
11. The _____ of contemporary smartphones has put single-purpose gadgets like digital cameras and game consoles at a disadvantage at the commercial level.