John is reading a leaflet about a reading fair. Read it carefully, choose the best answers for Questions 17-21 and complete Question 22.

Blissful Community Centre
Reading Fair

Come and join our special event! We promise you will enjoy it if you like reading and fun activities.

Date: 14 June 20XX (Fri) Time: 10 am - 5 pm Venue: Kowloon Stadium

Buy and Donate

We have collected many books donated by students of different primary schools. You can buy the books you like and take them home, or simply donate them to the schools in poor countries. The money earned will also be used to buy necessary supplies for those schools.

Take part in this meaningful event to help the needy!

Make Your Own Book Workshop

Want to create your own book? Our DIY artist, Ian Ma, will teach you how to bind separate pieces of paper into a book by sewing. You can then write your own story and draw some pictures on the computer. After that, we can glue the printed pages on your own book.

* Each workshop costs $100. It is only available to those who are aged ten or above as needles are used in the class.

Escape the Maze

This special maze is created by the famous mystery novel author, Christine Porter. You need to find your way out of the maze with the help of the given clues. If you enjoy solving puzzles, you must take part in this exciting game! The winner can get a copy of the limited edition of Christine Porter's latest novel. If you are interested in joining, please contact Mr Tang at 2121 0909 to sign up.

Directions

As there are limited parking spaces at our centre, we recommend you take public transport. You can take Bus No. 6 at Choi Hung Bus Terminus and get off at Prince Edward Fire Station. Walk straight ahead, the centre is next to Prince Hotel. You can also take the MTR to Mong Kok. Take Exit C and turn left into Tung Street. Walk along Tung Street for about five minutes and you will see Rose Church. The centre is opposite the church.

For more details, please visit our website (<http://www.bcc.com/readingfair>) or send us an e-mail at enquiry@bccmail.com.

John is reading a text about an interesting job. Read it carefully, choose the best answers for Questions 23-27 and complete Question 28.

Delivering on a Bike

Have you ever wondered how packages are delivered when you order things online? These orders are taken by courier companies and they are usually delivered by bike couriers.

Mike Johnson is a British bike courier, who has worked in Hong Kong for five years. ‘As a bike courier, I have to pick up packages and deliver them to people every day. It’s my job to ensure that these packages are not damaged and are delivered on time to recipients. Although clear delivery instructions are often given by my company, I actually need to plan delivery routes by myself. It may seem like a difficult task for most people, but it’s perfect for me as I like to take on challenges,’ said Mike.

To be a bike courier, you need to be physically fit and strong. Riding a bike for hours is not easy as it requires a lot of energy. In addition, sometimes the exact delivery location may not be reached by bike, so you may need to carry packages and deliver them on foot. It is also important that you have good problem-solving skills. Since unexpected things may happen during deliveries, you need to be prepared to tackle them on your own. However, it is not necessary to know all the routes of the city to become a bike courier as you can use GPS to help you.

‘Being a bike courier is fun as I love riding a bike all the time, but best of all, I can enjoy the beautiful views of the city. I think it’s the highlight of my job! I always feel happy when I receive positive feedback from the recipients. It motivates me to provide them the best services. However, I do feel really tired sometimes as I have to work long hours to earn enough money to support my family. I really wish that I could spend more time with my wife and children,’ said Mike.

John has sent an e-mail to his friend, Helen. Read it carefully, choose the best answers for Questions 29-34 and complete Question 35.

To: Helen Lee <helenlee@cmail.com.hk>

From: John Cheung <johncheung@cmail.com.hk>

Subject: Let's talk soon!

Dear Helen,

Sorry that it took me a while to reply to your last e-mail. I had a busy weekend!

My brother, Chris, just graduated from primary school before the summer holiday begins. My family and I were happy for Chris! To celebrate his graduation, we held a huge party at home last Saturday. I woke up early and went to the supermarket with my parents to buy some food and drinks. Mum and I made a blueberry cheesecake for the graduation party. In fact, our family has carried on this tradition since Grandpa graduated from university.

I was surprised to see that Aunt Dolly came to the party with her newborn son, Harry. He is an adorable baby with fluffy hair. He actually looks like Aunt Dolly when she was young as he has big eyes and small ears too. When I held him in my arms, he had a big smile on his face. It was such a special moment! Everyone in the family loves him!

Finally here's the important news that I want to tell you. My family and I have decided to travel to Japan before the end of the summer holiday. Let's meet up! We can go to theme parks and visit some tourist spots. We can also go to the malls. Most importantly, you have to take me to your favourite Japanese restaurant that you have mentioned before.

I can't wait to see you! How is your family? Please say 'Hi' to them for me.

Write back soon.

John
