Ryan is reading an article about boxing in a magazine. Read it carefully, choose the best answers for Questions 23-28.

By Athena Tam

(i)

Have you ever watched boxers fighting in a competition or practicing with a sand bag? This sport may seem to be very boring with all the repeating punches and movements. However, with boxer as my occupation, I can tell you that it is much more interesting than it seems. Being taught by a professional boxer can ensure your experience to be safe and enjoyable.

(ii)

To be skilled at boxing, being muscular and strong is definitely an advantage. This allows you to generate enough power during a fight. You also need to withstand the attacks from your opponent so that you would not fall down too easily. But most important of all, you must have strong legs since you have to support yourself firmly on the ground when you make punches to your opponent. Moreover, you need to make punches frequently and quickly to win. Focusing on the game and balancing yourself at the same time is not easy for new boxers.

(iii)

Once you have mastered the basic skills and trainings, you will get more satisfied and addicted to the sport. You will never get bored of it. It is a sport which allows you to benefit both physically and emotionally.

(iv)

Despite the joy boxing brings to participants, it can also be a harmful one. The biggest drawback of boxing is injuries involving different body parts. Therefore, suitable and adequate protection are important. Boxers should wear boxing gloves and headguards to reduce the chance of getting hurt. Getting well prepared and fully equipped can keep you safe while enjoying the exciting sport.

(B-2)

Ryan is reading his diary. Read it carefully, choose the best answers for Questions 29-34 and complete Question 35.

2nd February, 20XX (Monday)

Sunny

This morning, my classmate Ken said he is travelling to the mainland China for a few days. So, he asked me to take care of Lucy and bring her to visit the vet for a regular check.

In the afternoon, when Ken came to my house with Lucy, she frowned at me with a sad face and her big red eyes. It worried me because I thought she hated me. Luckily, when I touched her fur gently, she climbed to me happily. I believe we will have a good time.

3rd February, 20XX (Tuesday)

Cloudy

I took Lucy to visit the vet after breakfast. She kept moving and trying to get out from the bag on our way to the clinic. It seemed that she didn't want to go there. When we got back home, I tried to put her back into the cage, but she jumped away. I spent half an hour to chase after her.

After lunch, when Lucy was playing with straw in her cage, I asked Mum to look after Lucy and went to buy some carrots for her. When I came home, she just sat aside quietly. I was so afraid and I tried to play with her. But I failed to make her happy again. I really wish Ken could come back soon!

4th February, 20XX (Wednesday)

Sunny

When I woke up, I saw Lucy sitting aside the cage again. I was hoping to bring her out to the park to enjoy a nice sunny day. However, she just enjoyed sitting aside and refused to leave the cage. She made me feel frustrated. I am glad that Ken came and took her back.

5th February, 20XX (Thursday)

Sunny

I was so unhappy today because I woke up without seeing Lucy again. I started to miss her. Although it was not easy to take good care of her, I will always miss the moments we spent together!
