

Answering Strategy

1. Text type and format – This is a school magazine article. There is no fixed format, but the opening, the main body and the ending should be clearly differentiated by each's content. Come up with a straightforward title so as to draw attention and make your purpose clearly understood.
2. Genre – This is a piece of expository and descriptive writing. Discuss a few ways in which the new theme park may benefit Hong Kong as a community. Each benefit must be elaborated with concrete examples.
3. Language and formality – The language needs not be overly formal, since the discussion is about a new theme park which the readers—your schoolmates—are probably excited by. The messages should be delivered straightforwardly and in a slightly eager tone. Write in the simple present tense.
4. Organisation – First, note the coming of the new theme park and indicate that it might be a good thing. In the next few paragraphs, go into more detail about how it might benefit Hong Kong economically, socially and culturally. Spend a paragraph describing what the park would be like. Finally, end by summarizing your points and showing expectations.
5. Topic and vocabulary – The topic of this article is theme parks and the Hong Kong society. Draw on your own experience. Also refer to the following vocabulary for suggestions about ideas.
