

Answering Strategy

1. Text type and format – You are asked to write a review for an online forum. Basic details of the fair, such as its name and venue, are essential. A review should be in paragraphs, including an opening, a main body and a closing.
2. Genre – It is a descriptive writing giving opinions. You are expected to describe what you like most about the fair and what improvement can be made by referring to your experiences at the fair.
3. Language and formality – As this is a review to be posted on an online forum where people sharing the same interest gather, the tone can be casual, the language can be straightforward and simple words can be used.
4. Organisation – In the first paragraph, state the information of the fair, such as its name and venue, and briefly describe your experiences. Describe and express your opinions about the various parts of the fair in the body paragraphs. State whether you would recommend the fair to other forum users in the last paragraph.
5. Topic and vocabulary – The theme of this review is the sharing of experiences at the Animation-Comic-Game Hong Kong fair. You should have enough relevant ideas and vocabulary items for this topic. You can refer to the following ideas and vocabulary items.
