My Favourite Song

~~Dear readers,~~

If you ask me to name a song I love best, I will definitely say 'Let's Fall in Love Again' without missing a beat. The first time when I heard the song was during a wedding party. I didn't know what the song was about at first.

Later, I searched for more information about it on the Internet. (Since / Since then / Meanwhile), I have been addicted to the song.

'Let's Fall in Love Again' is a love song sung by the singer-songwriter Cindy Lam. Cindy is such an amazing singer that her smooth and beautiful voice delivers the bitter-sweet experiences of love straight into a listener's heart. Her voice avidly expresses the desire for and happiness of love, and this makes the song perfect.

What touches me most is the lyrics of the song. The romantic lyrics describe the pain of leaving the person you love as you remember the happy moments spent together as well as the joy of getting back together. I love the lyrics so much because they show the bright and energetic side of love. The words give me strength to follow my heart. Also, they bring us a positive message that we should never give up our love. So it is a great song for all lovers.

Besides, it is the unique and innovative style of the song that fascinates me. It is not just an ordinary folk song. ~~Folk music is traditionally transmitted by mouth and is often related to national culture.~~ It is creatively arranged in a jazzy style with some string and piano work. The talented singer-songwriter Cindy plays the piano and strings herself as well. The fusion of jazz and folk gives us a refreshing feeling. Whenever I am listening to it, I imagine myself dancing with a handsome musician on the grassland. Also, the music is very soft. Its mellow tune and rhythmic beat make me feel very relaxed and laidback.

'Let's Fall in Love Again' is undoubtedly a masterpiece. I hope all of you enjoy it like I do.
