

Track 01

Narrator: Primary Five. Listening Assessment. Part A. Sally is reading her poem aloud. Listen to the poem carefully and choose the best answer by blackening the circle.

Sally: [There are many brilliant people in the world I know.
But for me, she's the kindest person I've ever known.
She's brilliant even though she is old.
In her gentle eyes, her love to me is shown.
She was a famous singer, everyone knows.
Beautiful voice, pitch and tone.
Her songs are the most beautiful songs I have ever heard.
I used to sing along with her word for word!

When she became a famous singer in 1962,
She was only twenty-two.
She married my grandfather in 1972.
Then she became a mother of two.

'Never give up your dream', she said to my father.
I was told the same thing years later.
Now I've become a famous person too.
I've found out that every word she said is true.
No matter how difficult things seem,
Never give up your dream!]

Narrator: Number 1. Which of the following words in the poem does not rhyme with others? *
Number 2. Who is the famous singer mentioned in the poem? *
Number 3. How old is Sally's grandmother when she got married? *
Number 4. How many children does Sally's grandmother have? *
Number 5. What is the best title for this poem? *

This is the end of Part A.

Track 02

- Narrator: Part B. Brian is interviewing a tourist in the street. Listen carefully and complete the survey form.
- Brian: Hi, may I ask you some questions about Hong Kong?
- Sandy: No problem.
- Brian: Thank you. Can you please tell me your name?
- Sandy: Sure. My name is Sandy Collins. Please call me Sandy.
- Brian: OK. Sandy, how old are you?
- Sandy: I've just turned thirty-six. *
- Brian: Have you been to Hong Kong before?
- Sandy: Yes, I was here last year and also in 2010.
- Brian: I see. You've come to Hong Kong a few times. *
- Sandy: Yes, I love travelling to Asia. I've also been to other Asian countries like Korea, Japan and Singapore.
- Brian: That's impressive. How long are you staying in Hong Kong?
- Sandy: Today is my third day here. But I have to leave the day after tomorrow as the new school term is about to start. *
- Brian: So you are a student?
- Sandy: No, I'm not a student but I teach at a kindergarten in London.
- Brian: I see. You're a teacher.
- Sandy: Right. *
- Brian: What do you like about Hong Kong?
- Sandy: I really like the food here. It's tasty and inexpensive. I also like the transport system here. The public transport is so convenient, especially the MTR. I don't need to take a taxi at all.
- Brian: That's true. It's convenient to travel around Hong Kong by public transport. * What is your favourite place in Hong Kong?
- Sandy: I would say it's the Peak. The view there is amazing.
- Brian: Thank you so much, Sandy. Enjoy the rest of your stay.
- Narrator: This is the end of Part B.
