

Track 01

- Narrator: Primary Six. Listening Assessment. Part A. Kyle is talking to his mum about welcoming the coming Chinese New Year. Listen to the conversation carefully and choose the best answer by blackening the circle.
- Kyle: Mum, let's go shopping! We need to buy a lot of new things, especially T-shirts!
- Mum: Why? You've a lot of clothes already.
- Kyle: Mum, Chinese New Year is coming in a week! This is to welcome the new year, because wearing new clothes means having a new start.
- Mum: Well, that's your way of welcoming the new year. For me, wearing old clothes means bringing the good things you had in the past year to the new year. It's my way of welcoming the new year. *
- Kyle: Alright, but at least I should wear something red. The colour 'red' brings good luck. My only red T-shirt is too small.
- Mum: You're right. I can buy you some red, such as red socks to wear. They are cheaper.
- Kyle: Red socks? I want a red T-shirt, like the one with a Superboy picture on it.
- Mum: Do you want a red T-shirt to celebrate Chinese New Year, or you just want the new Superboy T-shirt?
- Kyle: Mum, you know how much I love Superboy!
- Mum: OK! Since you've behaved so well this year, I will get you the red T-shirt that you want. We can go shopping on Saturday afternoon. *
- Kyle: Mum, don't you remember that I have volleyball training every Friday and Saturday afternoon? Let's go shopping on Saturday morning. *
- Mum: I don't think so, because you need to tidy up your room. Why don't we go on Sunday afternoon?
- Kyle: Sorry, I can't. I need to go to Tim's birthday party. * What about Sunday morning?
- Mum: Well, I have to visit Aunt Mary. But I can visit Aunt Mary in the afternoon instead.
- Kyle: Thanks Mum! *
- Narrator: This is the end of Part A.

Miss Yip: Well, I know that many children in Africa are very poor. So I definitely want to help them. I also want to help children in my mother country.

Staff: Sure. Your donation will be allocated to help children in Africa and China then. * Miss Yip, how did you get to know about us?

Miss Yip: I came across your website one day and became interested.

Staff: I see. * Miss Yip, do you want to receive our newsletter in the future?

Miss Yip: No, thanks. I'd rather visit your website when I have time.

Staff: No problem. Your donation form has been completed. Once again, thank you for your generosity. *

Narrator: This is the end of Part B.
