

2 Drafting

Now, you have to draft a speech about your designs.

Text Type: Speech  Reader(s): Audience
 Tone: Formal  Tense(s): Present tenses

CLASSROOM
Online World
學·習·平·台

You can download the suggested answers to this section from our website as a reference.

Greet your audience.

On which occasion do people wear these outfits?

Refer to P.52 for the vocabulary about clothing.

If you put two or more adjectives together, you need to follow the order of adjectives (refer to P.62 about this).

- What is the topic of your speech?
- What is the theme of the outfits?
- Who are they designed for?

(greeting)

It is my pleasure to present to you two outfits designed by myself. The theme of these outfits is _____ (theme) and they are designed for people going to _____ (occasion).

- What is the style of the first outfit?
- What are its features? Can you describe them in detail (e.g. opinion, size, shape, colour, pattern, origin, material and style)?

The outfit for girls is in _____ (style) style. Let's look at the model's hair decorations. The large flowered ribbon headband _____ (description of the outfit) ! Furthermore, _____ (description of the outfit)

Finally, _____ (description of the outfit)

- What is the style of the second outfit?
- What are its features? Can you describe them in detail (e.g. opinion, size, shape, colour, pattern, origin, material and style)?

(transitional sentence)

First of all, _____ (description of the outfit)

Moreover, _____ (description of the outfit)

What is more, _____ (description of the outfit)

Write a transitional sentence to introduce the boys' outfit.

You may use these patterns to introduce features:
 - There is / are...
 - On his / her top,...
 - The...is / are...
 - Let's look at...

- Can you give a summary of the outfits?
- What are your expectations?

(benefit)

(expectations)

(showing gratitude to the audience)

What is the benefit of wearing the outfits?

What do you expect the audience to feel or do?

Thank the audience for their attention.