

Name: _____ Marks: _____ / 16
Class: _____

Answer

Part A (6 marks)

A good story is a must to a good speech. 1. A good story certainly helps a speaker to grab and maintain people's attention. 2. Sources for good stories for speeches are everywhere. 3. You can find stories in children's books. 4. You can highlight a superhero from a movie in order to make a point. 5. Personal experience from your childhood or life-changing events is also excellent sources for stories for speeches. In short, 6. keeping your eyes and ears open for presentation topics is important.

Part B (10 marks)

1. occur
2. burn
3. speaks
4. speak
5. speak
6. performs
7. is / are
8. has
9. are
10. is