

Name: _____ Marks: _____ / 16
Class: _____

Editing Skills—Adjectives

Part A: Rewrite the following sentences by putting the adjectives into the correct order. The first one has been done for you as an example. (10 marks, 2 marks @)

e.g. We bought some dishes British old lovely.

We bought some lovely old British dishes.

1. Have you seen his sports European car new?

_____

2. She was wearing a white pretty silk shirt.

_____

3. He lived in a wooden old dirty hut.

_____

4. We stood in front of a bronze historical big statue.

_____

5. Simon's father gave him a gold cool watch.

_____

Part B: The following passage contains a lot of adjectives. Some of the adjectives appear in the wrong order. Underline the wrongly ordered adjectives and write them in the correct order. The first one has been done for you as an example. (6 marks)

handsome tall

My friend Charles is a e.g. tall handsome boy. He always wears a blue long T-shirt and a big white cap. He carries a canvas black bag to school. His favourite food is red crunchy apples and he always has one in his bag. Our teacher is a Chinese kind tall man called Mr Chow. He usually wears a grey smart suit and glasses with brown plastic thick frames.