

A Warm Coat⁺ for Winter

Text
Grammar

On a cold winter's night, a poor farmer is walking past a tailor¹ shop with a bucket of pig's food when he trips² over a stone. The pig's food spills all over the street. The tailor storms out³ of his shop and yells, 'It's so stinky⁴ here! Use your coat to clean up this mess!' The farmer says nothing and obeys⁵.

A lawyer drives by the shop. The tailor and the passersby⁶ are laughing when the lawyer gets out of his car and points at them. 'That poor man can die from the cold and you will be the murderer⁷!' he says. The tailor is very worried so he gives the warmest coat in his shop to the farmer. The poor farmer goes away in the very fine⁸ coat.
