

CLASSROOM Primary Read On
Reading Worksheet (Primary 5)

Name: _____

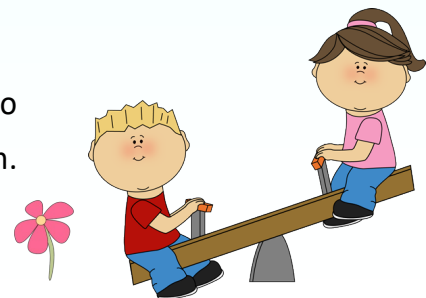

Class: _____ (_____)

Good morning, everyone. My name is Joyce. Today I'm going to introduce my good friends to you. One of them is Julie, and I believe you all know her. The other one is my elder brother Tim. They are my good friends because we get along with each other very well.

When we were in Primary 3, I had a very ugly new hairstyle and I hated it very much. All my classmates laughed at me and I was very upset. However, Julie didn't laugh at me. She told the other students to stop teasing me. She said it was rude to make fun of others. She also comforted me. Now, Julie and I are very good friends. We chat during recess and do homework together in the library after school. When I forget to bring my stationery, she shares hers with me. Because Julie is so nice to me, I sometimes give her small gifts like stickers to thank her.

My elder brother Tim is also my good friend. I get on with him well. I know that some children argue or even fight with their brothers and sisters. However, we never quarrel. Tim is always nice to me. He won't shout at me even when I do something wrong. He cares about me a lot. For example, he shares toys and food with me. On my last birthday, he bought me a very adorable teddy bear. He also helps me with my homework. In addition, he is helpful. He and I share the housework. We wash the dishes and sweep the floor for mum three times a week.

I like Julie and Tim very much. I am so grateful to them for their help. I know I can always count on them. That's the end of my presentation, thank you.
